HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY COMMUNICATION

Counsel:

Attached please find Google's supplemental response to Interrogatory No. 37. As noted in the Highly Confidential – AEO supplemental response, Google is making available for inspection in-development source code implementing versions of Android using OpenJDK, which is licensed under the GNU General Public License, v.2 (GPLv2) with Classpath Exception. Please let us know if and when you would like to inspect the code, per the procedures provided under the Protective Order.

Regards,

Matthias
